TREAT TREAT TREAT TREAT

Sacramento Adventist Academy Golf Tournament presented by Adventist Health, Sunday, April 23 the Sunday of Autumn weekend to the following Sunday, April 23.

The last few years the golf tournament has raised, after expenses, about $5,000 each year. These monies have supported students through the worthy student fund and paid for much needed campus improvements.

This year's goal is $8,000 for student scholarships and campus improvements. To reach that goal, the tournament must raise $15,000 before expenses. Every sponsorship, donation, volunteer hour, and of course round of golf helps move SAA closer to that goal.

Chapel Chat

Pastor Benji had both our K-6 and 7-12 Chapels singing praises this morning. Both groups then enjoyed the skit "Sins, Spit, and Sight" by the Drama Llamas--Zach, Andreas, Natalie, Gwen, and Jessi. It was a delightful skit acting out the story Jesus healing the blind man by putting mud in his eyes.

Pastor Benji then concluded K-6 Chapel reminding our students that sometimes God asks us to get messy, but He always helps us to find a way to clean up! The man was a mess, but once he rinsed his eyes he could see! And, when that happened, people noticed! If we do the same, people will notice. When we change and become more like Jesus-- people will notice.

After the Drama Llamas performed for 7-12 Chapel, Mrs. Ferguson spoke about how to be brave for God. Sometimes God asks His people to do really big, exciting things like save a whole nation (Moses), but more often God asks us to be brave in small ways. He wants us to speak up when we see injustices or people being treated unfairly. He wants us to "do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly" as is recorded in Micah 6:8.
