

New Convert Subsidy

Purpose

To encourage new converts or the children of new converts to be enrolled in a K-12 Seventh-day Adventist school.

Identity of New Convert

1. One joining the Seventh-day Adventist Church through baptism or profession of faith within the 18-month period prior to school enrollment.
2. If school-age children have joined the Church, the parent(s) or guardian(s) must either have joined the Seventh-day Adventist church within the last 18 months as well or not be members of the Church.

Benefits

1. 75% tuition only to be paid by NCC, the local church, and the school during the first semester of enrollment.
2. 50% tuition only to be paid by NCC, the local church, and the school during the second semester of enrollment.
3. 25% tuition only to be paid by NCC, the local church, and the school during the second year of enrollment.

Eligibility

1. Church membership will have been established during the eighteen-month period immediately preceding school enrollment.
2. Benefits will apply to students who are initially enrolled in a Seventh-day Adventist school within the 18-month period.

Procedures

1. Schools will certify to the Office of Education by name and school those students who are enrolled under these criteria.
2. Funding of the discount will include 60% contribution by NCC, 20% by the church, and 20% by the school.
