

Communication & Development Department

Northern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

Story Lead Form

The Communication and Development Department is committed to telling stories from around our conference. We like to share how your church, school, member/s, or ministry connects people to an abundant life with Jesus. If you have a story lead or wish to be a published author, please submit this form to media@nccsda.com, and someone from our department will get back to you.
