

Pre-Employment Physical Policy

Pacific Union Education Code E10-124 states: "After a conditional offer of employment, an employee shall provide the employer with a completed physical examination form signed by a physician of the employer's choice..."

For new employees who are not yet eligible for health assistance benefits, the Northern California Conference will reimburse the cost of the pre-employment physical up to a maximum of $100.